

The Bimonthly Bee

Events

January

- Teacher Help
- Eskaton
- Bingo
- DCM

February

- Eskaton
- Bingo
- See's Candies
- DCM

Overview

There's not too much to cover on this edition of the Bimonthly Bee, except for Club Elections and some DCON hype. In these two months, the Key Clubbers just kept on doing what they did best-providing service to our community.

Club Elections

As the Key Club year is beginning to close, new officers are necessary to replace existing ones. Thus, our annual Club Election took place on a particularly stressful Wednesday afternoon- well, for the candidates anyways. This year, twelve people decided to run for a position, which was double the amount last year! Almost every single role was contested, and a large amount of club members stayed around to help vote as well. The new board members as a result are:

President- Ashwini Ganapathi

Vice President of Service- Ryan Fang

Vice President of Projects- Allan Yu

Secretary- Shria Narayanan

Treasurer- Rami Mostafa

Editor- Julia Ramos

Spirit Coordinators- Hieu Nguyen and Dorsa Javaheri

DCON

It's that time of the year again. Key Club's official last event before the "end of the year"- except this time, it's in Sacramento, a much closer destination. The annual District Convention is an amazing event to attend that lasts three whole days, from April 8-10. DCON is an enormous opportunity for Key Clubbers to become fully exposed to how big and how great of an organization Key Club really is. On top of that, the entire three days are filled with Key Club activities, including an awards ceremony in the end. Essentially, it's a weekend of Key Club, without having to worry about schoolwork, or grades, or college. But for now, all we can do is wait...

